

She Needs Me

George Jones

No, I don't know the girl at the bar in the short red dress
I haven't had the chance to get acquainted with her yet
But I can tell that she's lonely by the sadness in her eyes
And she needs more than just a drink tonight. She needs me to give her love and understanding
Some good old country love and nothing else
She needs me to throw my loving arms around her
And tonight I could use some love myself. Each time she turns up the glass she drinks a memory from the past
And sadness becomes a teardrop in her eye
But she won't have to leave alone 'cause tonight I'm takin' her home
Wrapped up in these lonely arms of mine. For she needs me to give her love and understanding
Some good old fashioned love and nothing else
She needs me to throw my loving arms around her
And tonight I could use some love myself.

Songwriters

MONTGOMERY/EMERSON Published by

Lyrics © Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>