

Today the World Stopped Turning

Thunder

I can't believe the conversation we just had, came like a bolt out of the blue
You said you couldn't see a future anymore for me and you
It feels like someone's dropped a bomb upon my life
And I can't help wondering who's to blame
You thrust a dagger oh so deep into my heart
And I'm slain, all you left me is the pain
Chorus: 'Cos you stole my soul, then you broke my heart
And I don't know why, but I'm still yearning
Darling in my mind you've frozen the hands of time
Because today the world stopped turning
I was numb at first but now it's sinking in Don't think I've felt this way before
It wasn't easy but I let my feelings show, and you slammed the door
I gave you all the space you needed in your life
How could I give you anymore?
You told me that you really didn't understand
So what's the score, what did I take the trouble for?
chorus
The world stopped turning
(Solo)
I gave you all the space you needed in your life
How could I give you anymore?
You told me that you really didn't understand
So what's the score, what did I take the trouble for?
chorus
The world stopped turning
You lit the fire and I'm still burning, yes I'm burning

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>