

Endless Summer

Zwan

Hey
Hey There used to be a time
That I believed
The soft pouring rain
Was just the pouring rain, it wasn't me
But every new light
'Cause we're shiny and bright
We'll suspend the storms
And the clouds in sight Of an endless summer
An endless summer
An endless summer to be home Let me go wasting time
Let me go waste my time Once there was a chance
That I believed you
A kiss was just a kiss
No matter how I missed you
Shine a light on me
Say a prayer for relief From an endless summer
An endless summer
An endless summer to be home Did we go on too long?
Did we listen too close?
To a youth built strong
With things children shouldn't know
Hey And the fallout
From your third degrees
Of broken chairs
And of pedigree
Where the sons kill sons
And the daughters stay wise
'Cause when we rule
Everybody dies In an endless summer
An endless summer
An endless summer to be home
Hey Let me go wasting time
Let me go waste my time
Let me go wasting time
Let me go waste my time Now you can disagree
With how I choose to live
But freedom isn't free
Unless you learn how to give

How to To the summer, summer, summer, yea
Summer, summer, summer, yea
To the summer, summer, summer, yea
Summer, summer, summer, yea
