

Lake of Tears

L'Âme Immortelle

On the edge of the rainbow where eagles learn to fly
All of our dreams they seemed so clear
Into the mornin', into the light of dawn
We're flyin' higher than before And when I see the light that's shining from your eyes
Even brighter than before
We're ridin' the wind to reach the golden dawn
We have done it all before, before, before Here I stand, call on you again
But my heart is filled with fear
Like an eternal flame our love will remain
As we sail the lake of tears Sometimes I wonder you're so close but you're so far
Seems life will never be the same
Sigh for the morning to find the light of day
Dream of fortune fades away Here I stand, call on you again
But my heart is filled with fear
Like an eternal flame our love will remain
As we sail the lake of tears Here I stand, call on you again
But my heart is filled with fear
Like an eternal flame our love will remain
As we sail the lake Here I stand, call on you again
But my heart is filled with fear
All the tears that I've cried for the love of my life
As I sailed the lake of tears Like an eternal flame our love will remain
As we sail the lake of tears
