

Tomorrow Seems So Far Away

Walter Trout

Well the sun's goin' down, my heart sinkin' low
I'm hopin' for salvation, but there ain't no way to know
Minute by minute, I'm waitin' on a call
For somebody to save me by givin' it all
Just hangin' on, give me one more day
But tomorrow feels so far away
Nothin' is movin', and the world don't turn
It really doesn't matter about the lessons I've learned
I'm full of infection and I've had my fill
It's another injection, take another pill
Just hangin' on, give me one more day
But tomorrow seems so far away
Sometimes hopeful, other times not
And desperation is all I got
Sittin' here waitin', waitin' for the phone to ring
The uncertainty will kill me before anything
Just hangin' on, give me one more day
But tomorrow - it seems so far away
