

Ain't Gonna Happen

Born Cages

Maybe I'm too vague
Or maybe you're too stoned
This can't last forever
Do you remember life before it all began?
We wanted to go faster Looking at us, we're fucked up
Still, looking at us, I don't know...
Hoping for it, a breakdown
Still wishing for it, stop pushing for it Oh no no no no no, I'm alive
And I wanna be free
Oh no no no no, but that ain't gonna happen
With you next to me And maybe there was hope
Some time ago
We wanted to be stronger
Wanted to feed our hunger in this town But now looking at us, we're fucked up
Still, looking at us, I don't know...
Hoping for it, a breakdown
Still wishing for it, stop pushing for it Oh no no no no no, I'm alive
And I wanna be free
Oh no no no no, but that ain't gonna happen
With you next to me Everybody falling in love
While the world keeps falling apart
Everybody falling in love
While the world keeps falling, falling, falling Oh no no no no no, I'm alive
And I wanna be free
Oh no no no no, that ain't gonna happen
With you next to me Oh no no no no no, I'm alive
Baby I'm on my knees
This ain't gonna happen
With you next to me
You gotta believe, this ain't gonna happen
With you next to me
