

To Die For

Rooster

How can it hurt, when I feel no pain?
How can it heal, if I look the same? I've been searching all my mornings
For the last breath of a dream
Are you drowning or just waving
'Cause I'm tearing at the seams I wanna live and I wanna breathe
Always thought you'd be the one to set me free
But I can forgive, 'cause you make me believe in something more
Now I only want to live if I can find
Find somebody to die for, find somebody to die for How can you lose, if it's not a game?
How can you love, if you're never gonna change? I've been searching all my mornings
For the last breath of a dream
Are you drowning or just waving
'Cause I'm tearing at the seams I wanna live and I wanna breathe
Always thought you'd be the one to set me free
But I can forgive, 'cause you make me believe in something more
Now I only wanna live if I can find
Find somebody to die for Gotta find my way, through this maze of my desire
Come what may, bitter love or wasted time
You might say, I'm chasing shadows in my mind
But there's a light that guides my way to all I live for Somebody to die for I wanna live and I wanna breathe
Always thought you'd be the one to set me free
But I can forgive, cause you make me believe in something more
Now I only wanna live if I can find
Find somebody to die for, I need more, I want more
Gotta need something more I wanna live and I wanna breathe
Always thought you'd be the one to set me free
But I can forgive, 'cause you make me believe in something more
Now I only wanna live if I can find
Find somebody to die for Find somebody to die for
Find somebody to die for
Find somebody to die for
