

Not Gonna Give Into It

Olivia Newton-John

(Olivia Newton-John) No me voy a rendir, no no
No me voy a rendir, no no
No me voy a rendir, no no
No me voy a rendir Oh I'm not gonna give into it no
I'm not gonna give into it no no
I'm not gonna give into it no
I'm not gonna give into it There are nights when the moon
Shines in my eyes and haunts my mind
And I can't sleep a wink
And I really don't want to think There are times when I feel
If I sleep I'll die
But I dare not cry
And I run from my tears
And I fight them back with my fears Oh I'm not gonna give into it no
I'm not gonna give into it no no
I'm not gonna give into it no
I'm not gonna give into it And I feel so alone
For although you care
No one else can share
It's my own misery
In the end it's all up to me Oh I'm not gonna give into it no
I'm not gonna give into it no no
I'm not gonna give into it no
I'm not gonna give into it And I watch you sleep soundly
So peacefully unaware
And your breath is soothing to me
And it's good to know you're there Then the morning comes
With it's golden light
And I feel alright
And my heart beats again
But the night is not my friend Oh I'm not gonna give into it no
I'm not gonna give into it no no
I'm not gonna give into it no
I'm not gonna give into it
