

Old & Crazy (feat. Esperanza Spalding)

Bruno Mars

Will you still call me baby when I'm old and crazy, when I'm old and crazy will you still call me baby will you walk the same will you laugh the same will you still think I'm pretty when my hair's grey will you still call me baby when I'm old and crazy will you still hold my hand when my clothes are out of style, my teeth all ran away and I don't have the same smile, will you still call me baby when I'm old and crazy when I'm old and crazy will you still call me baby will you act the same will you laugh the same will you think I'm pretty when my hairs grey will you still call me baby when in old and crazy whistles will you still wanna dance even when my hips are weak, my ears don't hear so well and I can find a beat will you still call me baby when I'm old and crazy when I'm old and crazy will you still call me baby will you act the same will you laugh the same will you still think I'm pretty when my hairs grey will you still call me baby will you still call me baby will you still call me baby when I'm old and crazy
