

You're My Better Half

Keith Urban

Car door slams, it's been a long day at work
I'm out on the freeway and I'm wondering if it's all worth
The price that I pay, sometimes it doesn't seem fair
I pull into the drive and you're standing there And you look at me
And give me that come-here-baby smile
It's all gonna be alright
You take my hand, you pull me close and you hold me tight It's the sweet love that you give to me
That makes me believe we can make it through anything
'Cause when it all comes down and I'm feeling like I'll never last
I just lean on you 'cause baby you're my better half They say behind every man is a good woman but I think that's a lie
'Cause when it comes to you, I'd rather have you by my side
You don't know how much I count you to help me
When I've given everything I got and I just feel like giving in And you look at me
And give me that come-here-baby smile
It's all gonna be alright
You take my hand, you pull me close and you hold me tight And it's the sweet love that you give to me
That makes me believe we can make it through anything
'Cause when it all comes down and I'm feeling like I'll never last
I just lean on you 'cause baby you're my better half Yeah, I need to know Well, you take my hand
Yeah you pull me close and I understand It's the sweet love that you give to me
It makes me believe that we can make it through anything Oh baby, it's the sweet love that you give to me
That makes me believe we can make it through anything
'Cause when it all comes down and I'm feeling like I'll never last
I just lean on you 'cause baby you're my better half Oh, oh baby, you're my better half
Ooh, hey baby, you're my better half
Ooo
