Pull

Candiria

Television, the means of worldwide infection
A gesture of illicit excursions, relentless
No sign of the defenses, staggering militant advertising
Raping deep with the gift of persuasion, an act of desperationA tradition based on intimidation of destruction
Maul the opposition
An illusion of democracy
No conclusion, long live the legacyIrritate the masses like asbestos in the lungs
Reduce my flesh to plastic
The needle hits the vein
Advance, decline, the visual narcotic preys in sequenceParading in the essence of demons, one by one
Rise of the political hoodlum
Brainwash residue
Your neck in the revolving noose
