

Here i Go (Audio Warfare's Hardcore Edit)

2 Unlimited

Oh, I can't escape, I'm trapped
And there is no safe place to go
And I do regret the things I did
But how on Earth could I know? Here I go, here I go catch me I'm falling deep Here I go, here I go catch me I'm falling falling There's no way out, man you try to escape Concentrate your mind, 'cause you just might break into half, crack down fast I keep my face straight, no need to laugh
I did some right, I did some wrong
I regret these things, hey, but I gotta stay strong I feel depressed, now don't you know?
Catch me, 'cause I'm falling deep down below Oh, I can't escape, I'm trapped
and there is no safe place to go
And I do regret the things I did
but how on Earth could I know? Here I go, here I go
catch me I'm falling deep
catch me I'm falling falling Now here's the question: any suggestions?
You play it yourself, but yourself won't listen How do you mind feel like stressing searching for answers, you keep on guessing You messed it up, you're living low How far you'll go, man I don't know Come out the dark, I'll bring you in the light and leave your problems all behind Here I go, here I go, here I go again Catch me, 'cause I'm falling deep down below Oh, I can't escape, I'm trapped
and there is no safe place to go
And I do regret the things I did
but how on Earth could I know? Here I go, here I go
catch me I'm falling deep
Here I go, here I go
catch me I'm falling falling
