

Coma Black

Marilyn Manson

My mouth was a crib, and it was growing lies
I didn't know what love was on that day
My heart's a tiny bloodclot, I picked at it
It never heals, it never goes away
Burned all the good things in the eden eye
We were too dumb to run, too dead to die(2x)
This was never my world, you took the angel away
I killed myself to make everybody pay(2x)
I would have told her that she was the only thing that I could love in this dying world
But the simple word of love itself already died and went away
This was never my world, you took the angel away
I killed myself to make everybody pay(2x)
Burned all the good things in the eden eye
We were too dumb to run, too dead to die(2x)
This was never my world, you took the angel away
I killed myself to make everybody pay(4x)
Her heart's a bloodstained egg
We didn't handle with care
It's broken and bleeding and we can never repair(2x)
and we can never repair
