I Wait

The Garnet Hearts

things in this world
seem so far away
once again i wonder
where i amsomewhere someone's speaking
but i cannot hearand once again it all falls apart
but still i wait here trying to find some remnant of myselfmy days a dull aching please tell me what i'm waiting forall my days are fading into one all my days are fading all my days are fading into one all my days are fading awaythings in this world have never seems so gray
once again i wonder
what i've becomesomewhere something's breaking this world's so dead
when i cannot feel what's in my headbut still i wait here trying
to find some remnant of myselfmy days a dull aching
i'm waiting for
