Seaside

Lovebugs

I only want to sit
Alone beside the sea
Awake another night
To understand
What in the world
Does make this place
So beautifulI only want to hear
Everything asleep
With the sound it makes
I'm wondering
Why in the world
Do I feel more as one
Out hereDon't mind
All I know
Is that tomorrow
It slipped away
Don't mind
All I see
Is that tomorrow
I'm miles awayI only want to throw
Stones into the waves
See the circles grow
And wanna know
What in the world
Does still
Have meaning for meI only want to get
The reasons that I've lost
As a little boy
Back again
Why in the world
Didn't I see
What a fool I've been
