

Single Girl, Married Girl

A.P. Carter

(A. P. Carter)

Well, the single girl, yeah, the single girl
The single girl, she always dresses so fine
    She dresses so fine
    She always dresses so fine
But the married girl, oh, the married girl
The married girl, she wears just any old kind
    Just any old kind

    Oh, she wears just any old kind
Well, the single girl, yeah, the single girl
The single girl, she goes anywhere she please
    Goes where she please
    Oh, she goes anywhere she please
But the married girl, yeah, the married girl
She got a baby on her knees, baby on her knees
    Oh, she got a baby on her knees
    Baby on her knees
