

No Tomorrow

Funker Vogt

I met her in a restaurant
A face that you will not forget
A character you will not find

In a thousand women you have metHere she comes with a load of sorrows

I don't care if there's no tomorrow

Tonight, yes tonight, I feel good

And tomorrow worse than I shouldHer body in perfect shape

A smile that will turn you down

Resistance is impossible

You could only give in
