

Elephant's Foot

Maceo Parker

Wow! killing the day not knowing what to do iâ€™m gonna get my friend and go to the zoo we didnâ€™t see an elephant or cage someone had put them all on the stage

There were lones and bones and all kinds of grhymes you know those elephants wouldnâ€™t stay in line I said: I know just what they need letâ€™s teach them all to do the Waymen reed

We practised and practised all day long to teach these elephants the elephants song they looked at us with tied lips just kepâ€™on moving those big elephant hips and elephant dancing is a thing to see and thatâ€™s when I noticed they were looking at me I said: come on, elephants, come on, letâ€™s go and thatâ€™s when one of them stepped on my toe Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh!

elephants stepped on my foot,
elephants stepped on my foot,
elephants stepped on my foot,
elephants stepped on my foot,

...

you must give elephants a dirty look

I like to teach but I have my limits elephant dancing is a pretty good gimick I looked at my wife, it was getting late it was about time to open the gate people came in to see the show someone said: Hey, look, thereâ€™s Maceo!

I said: Can I have your attention please, these elephants are about to dance you down to your knees they walked, they grained and swayed all day startet thinking about after the show hey

I said: come on, it's not time to eat we got to get the crowd up off their feet we got to keep going for a while yet gonna hip them all a out of dead I said: anyway after this there's another show and again, same elephant same toe

Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh!
elephants stepped on my foot,
elephants stepped on my foot,
elephants stepped on my foot,
elephants stepped on my foot,
...

you must get worried for a dirty look

I know what I'll do: I'll feet them some of this:

solo

elephants stepped on my foot,
...

elephants stepped on it..
