The Caitiff Choir: Defeatism

It Dies Today

Surrender and know I've failed you.
Now let the darkness swallow you whole.
Nothing could ever compensate,
For what I've done to you.
Tell me, is there any recollection of a time,
Before the abhorrent smell of death,
Masked all the sugary scents of springtime...
And these apparitions led me astray,
Into the bowels of perdition?Together, we created a world void sunlight:
Darkness fell, as we walked away.Before an individual so cavalier, yet so depraved,
Laid you down upon the shores of Acheron.
Before we became immersed in iniquity.Together, we created a world void sunlight:
Darkness fell, as we walked away.And as we walked away,
The sky, it seemed to turn to black.
We did create an environment that's oh so dolent,
But I'd give anything to change these memories
Back to reality and return us to the light.Together, we created a world void sunlight:
Darkness fell, as we walked away.Surrender, and know I've failed you.
Now let the darkness swallow you whole.
Nothing could ever compensate,
For what I've done to you.
Now walk away and end our days.

Songwriters
Nicholas Joseph Brooks;Steven John Lemke;Michael William Hatalak;Nicholas John Mirusso;Christopher James CappelliPublished by RAM ISLAND SONGS (SEE NOTES);GO BILLS MUSIC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/