Lightblinde

Charlotte Martin

She breaks the rules and he falls into place
She makes the moon harrass the sun
The point of madness at her fingertips
He breaks....
She sucks him dry until he's vaprozied
And what is left she gives to me
Voices of reason start to fade away
I stay....Late at night we all run out
Demons, saints must brawl
After dark, our eyes are safe
And lightblinde and lightblindeShe's under water but she won't need air
Her daddy's money made her well
He's finally empty thanks to both of us
I care...
I stare...Late at night we all run out
Demons, saints must brawl
After dark, our eyes are safe
And lightblinde and lightblindeAre you still dreaming
Am I too late again
See if it's safe for us to run away, run away
Run away, run awayLate at night we all run out
Demons, saints, must fall
After dark our eyes are safe
Late at night we all run out
Demons, saints and all
After dark, our eyes are safe
