Powderfinger

Oh Jesus Christ, what name do You go by now
For time is passing with the wind blows new decrees
Canned for life, your used by date is faded
And followers of you now watch TV What could I do? And tonight your dress is looking shaded
The colors don't seem to captivate
Count the loss I see you moving on now
Pressure's off, no more people to drag you down What could I do?
On my own I stand naked Jesus Christ, don't look at me that way
