Throw My Love Around

Jon Mclaughlin

She has the power with every move she makes
To turn my eyes and turn my fate
To be here, to be here
But I am a liar, the promises I've made have Broken down with my broken way
But I'll be here, I'll be here and as long as I am
I'm gonna throw my love around
Throw my love around
Throw my love around
I'm gonna throw my love around
Throw my love around
Throw my love around
I see all the people with broken hearts
In an unfriendly world, who cares who you are?
And it's not fair, they don't care
But you are here for me and
I am part of the life you're leading
So I won't move without you
I'm gonna throw my love around
Throw my love around
Throw my love around
I'm gonna throw my love around
Throw my love around
My love around
I'll be what I have to
I'll be what I have to be
I'll be what I have to, have to be
I'll be what I have to
And as long as I am
As long as I am
I'm gonna throw my love around
Throw my love around
Throw my love around
I'm gonna throw my love around
Throw my love around
Throw my love around
I'm gonna throw my love around
Throw my love around
(I'll be what I have to be)

Throw my love around
I'm gonna throw my love around
Throw my love around
Throw my love around
