Joelle

You were my balance
You were my balance
You were my
How can I fall in, you're holding me up
You were my balance
You were my

I trusting you when I'm spinning out of control
You guided me, helped me get in touch with my soul
Give me the bad time so find a better
We see the clear skies through cloudy weather
We'll be apart, but we're still together
I know

You were my balance
You were my balance
You were my
How can I fall in, you're holding me up
You were my balance
You were my
