

The Harold Song

Ke$ha

I miss your soft lips, I miss your white sheets
I miss the scratch of your unshaved face on my cheek
And this is so hard 'cause I didn't see
That you were the love of my life and it kills me I see your face in strangers on the street
I still say your name when I'm talking in my sleep
And in the limelight I play it off fine
But I can't handle it when I turn off my nightlight
But I can't handle it when I turn off my nightlight They say that true love hurts
Well, this could almost kill me
Young love murdered, that is what this must be
I would give it all to not be sleeping alone, alone The life is fading from me
While you watch my heart bleed
Young love murdered, that is what this must be
I would give it all to not be sleeping alone, alone Remember the time we jumped the fence when
The Stones were playing and we were too broke to get in
You held my hand and they made me cry while
I swore to God it was the best night of my life Or when you took me across the world we Promised that this would last forever but now I see
It was my past life, a beautiful time
Drunk off of nothing but each other 'til the sunrise
Drunk off of nothing but each other 'til the sunrise They say that true love hurts
Well, this could almost kill me
Young love murdered, that is what this must be
I would give it all to not be sleeping alone, alone The life is fading from me
While you watch my heart bleed
Young love murdered, that is what this must be
I would give it all to not be sleeping alone, alone It was a past life
A beautiful time
Drunk off of nothing but each other 'til the sunrise
'Til the sunrise They say that true love hurts
Well, this could almost kill me
Young love murdered, that is what this must be
I would give it all to not be sleeping alone, alone The life is fading from me
While you watch my heart bleed
Young love murdered, that is what this must be
I would give it all to not be sleeping alone, alone

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>