

Long Stay (feat. Ryme Tyme)

Ed Rush & Optical

Slip Thru your Splinter Cell, administer the Compound no Fixation, leave you sick with the Viral SoundCue all those up, while I hit you all at Point Blank Mystery Machine, hitting heavy as a Sherman TankWhy you better chill, when we Get Ill
Buy White Lightning, smack The Creeps and,Leave 'em with The Chill, hear the Rock Babies Up in my Flight Path,
I go mad crazyFlying Serums that hit the Pac Man who Rocks The House take it from the top to the Pod jamUp in the Fast Lane, the Kerbcrawler
Bleep Bleep in my brain,
I had to call herTicket to ZardoZ, up inside the Satellites Malfunction Funktion, Naked Lunch and luncheonUp in my Capsule, take you to the Wormhole Realise that you and I, we're reaching the goalâ€™Follow my Lifespan Audio Cat Scan Rags to riches tycoon to the trash canSick Note society Feed them The Medicine
Saturate endorphins Swimming through my head againSpace Crisis where astronauts have never been Beaten like a Punch Bag but never given inBring the rhythm in to shake all sections We're coming to town
It's like a ResurrectionThat's right don't need no Gasmask Bacteria infection
The only cure is music
...and WatermelonBeware the Alien Girls and the Serum that they're selling They'll bring the blue and white sniffer dogs they're already smellin' Livin in a sound maze With numerous endings Grow Bag for the blending Hammerhead for the brain With the vibe I'm sending When I'm Taking my aim...

Taking my aim...
Taking my aim...
