

Sucker

Europe

She works hard to enjoy the weekends
All glammed up to describe the feelin'
Makin' her way through the crowd
Somethin' is drivin' her wildShe's turnin' up the stereo
She wants everybody to know
She's fixin' to see the show
She's a s-s-sucker for a guitar heroHer obsession is legendary
And all her boyfriends temporary
Her idea of a perfect man
Plays a custom through a Marshall ampShe's turnin' up the stereo
She wants everybody to know
She's fixin' to see the show
She's a s-s-sucker for a guitar heroGod knows she can't control her weakness
Sometimes she settles for the local talents
And everyone knows it's a phase
Just tappin' to kill some time
'Cause' she'll be back in a wrackfull place
When those trucks roll into townNow she won't need a stereo
Yeah, 'cause' everybody will know
That she's right there watchin' the showShe'll be throwin' all her love around
Now the boys are back in town
Until she just can't take it no more
She's a s-s-sucker for a guitar hero
