Encounter

Forever Changed

We've got a lot to learn.
Why do we always run away?
The time to fight is now.
The silent voice is of no use
We've got to rise up.And so, the story's not over,
The war hasn't been won.All that's left is understanding the enemy is alive.There is a war at hand.
It's a battle to choose to truth over pleasure.And so, the story's not over,
The war hasn't been won.All that's left is understanding the enemy is alive.
We see him all the time.He's beat us down for so long,
It's time we stand up for what's right.
He's beat us down for so long,
Let's stand up for what's right.All that's left is understanding the enemy is alive.
There is only one truth out there:
We will win the fight.
