

Crusade

Ariel, Zoey & Eli

Verse 1:

I hear you talk, but your words are tainted
Your words are a terrifying picture that you've painted
Bending all of those who don't obey your orders,
But you missed a girl still stuck behind your corners

Pre-chorus:

Trapped in hell with no freedom,
Disagreeing with the laws of your corrupted Kingdom
I can't handle this, I'm running out of time
Say goodbye, wish me well, I'm breaking out tonight

Chorus:

Run, run, run, she's getting away~
And don't you ever stop 'til the criminal's been caught

Catch up, catch up, don't you dare delay~
Fighting against a brigade, the leader of her own crusade!

Verse 2:

The streets are dirty with the blood of traitors,
Now with the cries of all the non-believers
If this is how it is then I declare war
A million against you- what are you waiting for?

Chorus:

Run, run, run, she's getting away~
And don't you ever stop 'til the criminal's been caught

Catch up, catch up, don't you dare delay~
The sun is going down, you'll never find me now

Watch out, watch out, she's not alone~
Behind her is an army, can't you hear them marching?

Hurry up, don't let her go~
Fighting against a brigade, the leader of her own crusade!

Bridge:

You can call me what you will,
You can disagree with me,
You can try to degrade me and insult what I believe
So try your best, catch me if you can,
But I'm not changing who I am!

Chorus:

Run, run, run, she's getting away~
And don't you ever stop 'til the criminal's been caught

Catch up, catch up, don't you dare delay~
The sun is going down you'll never find me now

Watch out, watch out, she's not alone~
Behind her is an army, can't you hear them marching?

Hurry up, don't let her go
Fighting against a brigade, the leader of her own crusade!

Her own crusade~
