Unfortunate

Earshot

I wanna make sure
I wanna be clear
I want you to know
I love you my dearMe, I'm so dirty, covered in spite
Maybe you'll come back
'Cause you want me, maybe you won'tBut you are so young
Don't you feel dumb?
You're not the only unfortunate one
Unfortunate oneHeld in your head
The bad things they did
And all of the lies
And bad things they saidMe, I'm unworthy, callous and cold
Maybe you need me
'Cause you're lonely, maybe you don'tBut you are so young
Don't you feel dumb?
You're not the only unfortunate oneAnd we all live
And make mistakes
And build up walls that make us safe
Spitting on all that made us sickYeah, but you are so young
Yeah, now don't you feel dumb?
You're not the only unfortunate one
Oh, now you're not the only unfortunate one
