Obvious

Sector Seven

They're scared of his make up
Tattoos and piercings
They say that it's too bad
He won't amount to anything
They judge by the way he looks
(Woah)
The cover's not quite like the book
He's just so misunderstood
(Woah, woah, woah)
'Cause it's so obvious
Theres nothing wrong with us
It's alright, we're alright
No, we're not about to go and make
The same mistakes your mother made
It's so obvious
So just stop, blaming us because
It's not wrong to beat 'em
No, we're not about to go and make
The same mistakes your mother made
No, we're not about to go and make the same mistakes
She's 18, so sexy
She's never made love
So come friends, that saying
She sleeps with everyone
They judge by the way she looks
(Woah)
The cover's not quite like the book
She's been so misunderstood
(Woah, woah, woah)
'Cause it's so obvious

Theres nothing wrong with us
It's alright, we're alright
No, we're not about to go and make
The same mistakes your mother made
It's so obvious
So just stop, blaming us because
It's not wrong to beat 'em
No, we're not about to go and make

The same mistakes your mother made
They judge by the way we look
(Woah)
The cover's not quite like the book
We're just so misunderstood
(Woah, woah, woah)
It's so obvious
Theres nothing wrong with us
It's alright, we're alright
No, we're not about to go and make
The same mistakes your mother made
It's so obvious
So just stop, blaming us because
It's not wrong to beat 'em
No, we're not about to go and make
The same mistakes your mother made
(It's so obvious)
No, we're not about to go and make
The same mistakes your mother made
(It's so obvious)
No, we're not about to go and make the same mistakes
