Wax Wings

Braid

on mine fearful flier
unalarmed in gravity's charm and starter motors hum
ballads of ballasts
am i reaching?
wax wins i surrenderand this makeshift design will ground me
and without the air's arms around me
i'll surrender the sky
to your dumb machinewax wings prepare for takeoff
with the engine beneath the ribs
and the wind sings
ballads of balance
can you hear me?
wax wins i surrenderand i know that icarus
loves me
and there are no stars
above me
i melt into the sun
