Off Day

Second Class

waking up and i hear the tv blaring cause i guess i must have left it on again stumbling through the door and i am wearing the same thing i had on when i came in but it wont be too long til another day is gone and i'll be in your arms again the radio plays another song and i gladly sing along even if my words are wrong i don't care cause its ok i've had an offday and that all gonna change tonight when i see your face and hear you say that its all gonna be aright three o'clock and i'm just going through the motions waiting for the day to turn to night tired eyes and complete lack of emotion everybody's asking me if i'm alright but it wont be too long til another day is gone and i'll be in your arms again the radio plays another song and i gladly sing along even if my words are wrong i don't care cause its ok i've had an offday and that's all gonna change tonight when i see your face and hear you say that its all gonna be alright
