Say Goodbye

Skillet

Things are changing
It seems strange and
I need to figure this out
You've got your life, I got mine
But you're all I cared about
Yesterday we were laughing
Today I'm left here asking
Where has all the time gone now
I'm left alone somehow
Growing up and getting older
I don't want to believe it's over
Don't say goodbye
'Cause I don't wanna hear those words tonight
'Cause maybe it's not the end for you and I
And although we knew this time would come for me and you
Don't say anything tonight if you're gonna say goodbye
Do you remember in December
How we swore we'd never change
Even though you're leaving, our feelings
Would always stay the same
I wish we could be laughing instead I'm standing here asking
Do we have to end this now can we make it last somehow
We both know what we've gotta say, not today
'Cause I don't wanna leave this way
Don't say goodbye
'Cause I don't wanna hear those words tonight
'Cause maybe it's not the end for you and I
And although we knew this time would come for me and you
Don't say anything tonight if you're gonna say goodbye
And if it's over
It hurts but I'm giving you my word
I hope that you're always
Happy like we were, happy like we were
Don't say goodbye
'Cause I don't wanna hear those words tonight
'Cause maybe it's not the end for you and I
And although we knew this time would come for me and you
Don't say anything tonight if you're gonna say goodbye
Yesterday we were laughing

If you're gonna say goodbye
Today I'm left here asking
If you're gonna say goodbye
And although we knew this time would come for me and you
Don't say anything tonight if you're gonna say goodbye
