Not Too Late

Satchel

Tell me how you've been
Tell me what you've seen
Tell me that you'd like to see me too'Cause my heart is full of no blood
And my cup is full of no love
Couldn't take another sip even if I wantedBut it's not too late
It's not too late for loveMy lungs are out of air
Yours are holding smoke
And it's been like that now for so longI've seen people try to change
And I know it isn't easy
But nothin' worth the time ever really isAnd it's not too late
It's not too late for love
For love
For love
For love
