Lofticries

Purity Ring

Bring, bring the thunder
And the loud, loud rain
Lead our woes asunder, 'Neath the proud, proud veins
Of traits that bleed the gunmen
Of our pumping earthly hearts
Ween our joys in plunder
Feel our shining teeth
Bet our hold on happiness
Bead weighted test with lofticries
Loftiecries with trembling thighs

Weepy chests, with weepy sighs

Weepy skin with trembling thighs

You must be hovering, over yourself watching us drip on each others sides

Dear brother collect all the liquids off of the floor

Use your oily fingers make a paste let it form

Let it seep through your sockets and earholes,

And into your precious fractured skulls

Let it seep, let it keep you from us

Patiently heal you, patiently unreel you

Bead weighted test with lofticries

Loftiecries with trembling thighs

Weepy chests, with weepy sighs

Weepy skin with trembling thighs

You must be hovering, over yourself watching us drip on each others sides

Dear brother collect all the liquids off of the floor

Use your oily fingers make a paste let it form

Bead weighted chest with lofticries

Loftiecries with trembling thighs

Weepy chests, with weepy sighs

Weepy skin with trembling thighs

You must be hovering, over yourself watching us drip on each others sides
