Good Fight

Unspoken

Until you stop breathing
Until you stop bleeding
Until your heart stops kick drum beating
When it's hard times
When it's long days
And the enemy is right up in your face
When your back's against the ropes
And you're feeling all alone

Keep fighting the good fight
Keep letting your light shine
'Cause I'm never gonna leave you
Always gonna see you through to the other side
Keep fighting the good fight, fighting the good
Fighting the good fight, good fight

Even in the road blocks
Even through the rough spots
When you're feeling you've given all that you've got
I'm with you in the next step
Givin' you the next breath
I'll be the voice sayin' "you're gonna make it"
When you're out there on your own
You are never alone

Just keep on singing
And keep on dancing
Joy will be your banner
And my love will be your anthem
And you may never know what your tomorrow holds
But you can know that I am holding your tomorrow
