

Pandamoranda

Lovedrug

I think you're swelling
Ready to sink and swallow
Is this your true love?
It's a pleasure to meet you, America Wait for signs of youth
Wait for signs that never arrive Ringing your bell and Angers of pandamoranda Wait for signs of youth
Wait for signs that never arrive Like this is a white coliseum and you are the fighter
Why not pretend that you have the strength of victorious men?
And let's say the bull is nearly approaching with speed and agility
Take off your shirt and wave in the air 'cause you are the sign
