

Girl From Mars

Ash

Do you remember the time
I knew a Girl From Mars?
I don't know if you knew that
Oh we'd stay up late playing cards
Henri Winterman Cigars
Though she never told me her name
I still love you Girl From Mars
Sitting in a dreamy daze by the water's edge
On a cool summer's night
Fireflies and stars in the sky
Gentle glowing light
From your cigarette
The Breeze blowing softly on my face
Reminds me of something else
Something that in my memory has been replaced
Suddenly all comes back
And as I look to the stars
I remember the time
I knew a Girl From Mars
I don't know if you knew that
Oh we'd stay up late playing cards
Henri Winterman Cigars
Though she never told me her name
I still love you Girl From Mars
Searching through the darkness
And over the moonlit stand
Electricity in the air
Twisting all through the night on the terrace
Now that the summer is here
I know that you are almost in love with me
I can see it in your eyes
Strange lights shimmering
Over the sea tonight
And it almost blows my mind
And as I look to the stars
I remember the time
I knew a Girl From Mars
I don't know if you knew that
Oh we'd stay up late playing cards
Henri Winterman Cigars
Though she never told me her name
I still love you Girl From Mars
Today asleep in the chair by the window
It felt as if you'd returned
I thought that you were standing over me
When I woke there was no-one there
I still love you the Girl From Mars
Do you remember the time
I knew a Girl From Mars?
I don't know if you knew that
Oh we'd stay up late playing cards

Henri Winterman Cigars
Though she never told me her name
Do you remember the time
I knew a Girl From Mars?
I don't know if you knew that
Oh we'd stay up late playing cards
Henri Winterman Cigars
And I still dream of you
I still love you Girl From Mars
