Alone

Susan Tedeschi

Been sitting round here, baby
Thinking bout our last long talk
Been sitting here at this table
At your favorite restaurantBeen hoping I could meet you here
So that I can make this perfectly clear
That all I do is think about you
Since you went and left me on my ownIm so alone, ohh
Im so lonely, baby, and I need to say that
I know I was wrong, ohh
And Im asking you to come back home
Dont wanna be here aloneMissing your sweet body, baby
Tears are streaming down my face, yeah
Go on and make your mind up, your mind up
I aint got no where to be right now, babyBut loving yous a long long way from here
And all I ask of you, my dear
Is maybe you would reconsider
All the love weve missed since youve been goneIm so alone, ohh
Im so lonely, baby, and I need to say that
I know I was wrong, I was so wrong
And Im asking you to come back home
Dont wanna be here aloneI know I was the first to say good-bye, I was a fool, baby
Look at these tears in my eyesAnd if loving yous a long long way from here
Then all I ask of you, my dear
Is maybe you would reconsider
All the love weve missed since youve been goneIm so alone, ohh
Im so lonely, baby, and I need to say that
I know I was wrong, I was so wrong
And Im asking you to come back home
Dont wanna be here aloneIm so alone, ohh
Im so lonely, baby, oh yes
And know that I was wrong, oh, I was wrong
But Im asking you to come back home
I dont wanna be here aloneIm so alone, ohh
Im so lonely, baby, oh yes
Oh now, I know that I was wrong, yes, I was wrong
But Im asking you to come back home
Dont wanna be here aloneIm so alone, ohh
Im so lonely, baby
And I know that, I know that I was so wrong
