

Alone

Susan Tedeschi

 Been sitting round here, baby
 Thinking bout our last long talk
 Been sitting here at this table
At your favorite restaurant
 Been hoping I could meet you here
 So that I can make this perfectly clear
 That all I do is think about you
Since you went and left me on my own
 Im so alone, ohh
 Im so lonely, baby, and I need to say that
 I know I was wrong, ohh
 And Im asking you to come back home
Dont wanna be here alone
 Missing your sweet body, baby
 Tears are streaming down my face, yeah
 Go on and make your mind up, your mind up
I aint got no where to be right now, baby
 But loving yous a long long way from here
 And all I ask of you, my dear
 Is maybe you would reconsider
All the love weve missed since youve been gone
 Im so alone, ohh
 Im so lonely, baby, and I need to say that
 I know I was wrong, I was so wrong
 And Im asking you to come back home
Dont wanna be here alone
 I know I was the first to say good-bye, I was a fool, baby
Look at these tears in my eyes
 And if loving yous a long long way from here
 Then all I ask of you, my dear
 Is maybe you would reconsider
All the love weve missed since youve been gone
 Im so alone, ohh
 Im so lonely, baby, and I need to say that
 I know I was wrong, I was so wrong
 And Im asking you to come back home
Dont wanna be here alone
 Im so alone, ohh
 Im so lonely, baby, oh yes
And know that I was wrong, oh, I was wrong
 But Im asking you to come back home
I dont wanna be here alone
 Im so alone, ohh
 Im so lonely, baby, oh yes
Oh now, I know that I was wrong, yes, I was wrong
 But Im asking you to come back home
Dont wanna be here alone
 Im so alone, ohh
 Im so lonely, baby
And I know that, I know that I was so wrong
