Out Of Sight

Love Like Blood

another day comes to another end another kiss seals another hand another hand is setting free hidden tears I cannot see while the moon is grinning a time lifting up my agony suffice it to say
i'll damn the whole day whole day heaven knows where heaven is heaven knows just what I miss keep the silence in embrace I can't forget this happy face where are the frames of the happy days
out of sight
the soughts of lust of love out of mindthe strength and the self respect I could find a head and a heart and a soul it's really out of sight who's walking in this park who's singing in this dark what am I supposed to do why am I searching for you moonlight please beware the reality of despair open your mind set it free immortal agony
