Lady Red

Travis Bretzer

We stay together and things keep getting better
No need to wonder why, I'll always be your guy
So please remember, I'll leave you baby never
When those tears roll down your eyes, It tears me up insideSweet lady red, I'm sorry for the things I said
Sweet lady red, I'll make it right (x2)Look to the baby picture
I'm keen on sharing with ya
A love so genuine, It keeps our hearts alignSweet lady red, I'm sorry for the things I said
Sweet lady red, I'll make it right (x2)(Interlude)Sweet lady red, I'm sorry for the things I said
Sweet lady red, I'll make it right (x2)
