

Chasing the Crown

Elton John

I built a wall in China, I sank an ocean liner
I've wrecked homes, I've burned thrones, chasing the crown
I've put thorns in your feet, I spread plague in the streets
I've sprung traps, confused maps, chasing the crown Chasing the crown till he bites the apple
I was licking my lips till his Son come down
I'm chasing the crown, crown, I'm chasing the crown I'm taking a turn in the right direction
By leaving his soul in the lost and found
I'm chasing the crown, I'm chasing the crown I saw the tea float in Boston, I saw the live wire shock 'em
I made them float, I made them drown, chasing the crown
I laid the desert sands, I froze the polar caps
Well, they'd dry out, and I'd shout, "Hey, I'm chasing the crown" Chasing the crown till he bites the apple
I was licking my lips till his Son come down
Chasing the crown, crown, I'm chasing the crown I'm taking a turn in the right direction
By leaving his soul in the lost and found
I'm chasing the crown, chasing the crown I'm chasing the crown till he bites the apple
I was licking my lips till his Son come down
I'm chasing the crown, crown, I'm chasing the crown I'm taking a turn in the right direction
By leaving his soul in the lost and found
I'm chasing the crown, I'm chasing the crown I built a wall in China, I sank an ocean liner
I've wrecked homes, I've burned thrones, chasing the crown
I've put thorns in your feet, I spread plague in the streets
I've sprung traps, confused maps, chasing the crown I saw the tea float in Boston, I saw the live wire shock 'em
Made them float, made them drown, chasing the crown
I built a wall, I built a wall in China
I'm chasing the crown
