

One Last Kiss

Madina Lake

She looked at me, her eyes were watering
That's when I knew that this was about to end
Frozen in that moment, time was standing still
And I could feel my heart sinking [Incomprehensible]
?Goodbye?, she said, ?I went and found somebody new "
But I gave you every waking moment
I gave you everything you wanted
And now I know you're giving me up
She walked away and I could hardly breathe
Turned around and fell down to my knees
I'm shivering as the truth is settling
Her tomorrow has nothing to do with you
I knew someday
She'd find someone outside love
But before you go
Please leave me one last kiss
'Cause I gave you every waking moment
I gave you everything you wanted
And now I know you're giving me up
And I can't lie still
When there's someone else beside you
And I can't lie still
'Cause I'm all alone this time
I'm all alone this time
I'm all alone this time
I remember when you were falling
And I was there just holding onto you
And I remember all those scars I wear
That you carved in me
I gave you every waking moment
I gave you everything you wanted
And now I know it's giving me up
And I can't lie still
When there's someone else beside you
And I can't lie still
'Cause I'm all alone this time
I'm all alone this time
I'm all alone this time
