

Second Best

Home Grown

I want your boyfriend in a box
So I can send him off
Somewhere far away 'cause then
We'll be the way like we used to be, used to be
You want my girlfriend all tied up
So you can threaten her since
I'm not with you now you're telling her
That you still want me, still want me
I don't want to be second best
I've waited too long
I just want a second chance
To be your first again
You're never satisfied with anyone
Pretending you're content
When your boyfriend leaves
You'll be calling me and we'll cheat again, cheat again
I don't want to be second best
I've waited too long
I just want a second chance
To be your first again
To be your first again
Why can't this feeling end?
To be your first again
I don't want to be second best
I've waited too long
I just want a second chance
To be your first again
