

Gotta Stay High

New Radicals

I saw your eyes I had to run away
I fell too deep in love
There were no words to say
I just had to get high One look inside and I knew right away
I felt too much
I did not have the strength
I just ran to get high But lover, there's something about you pushing me
Pulling me
That's saying don't go away I saw your eyes
Fell back to yesterday
What lonely child
Until you let me stay
I had no one on my side
[Incomprehensible] Too weak to stand
Too scared to love again
The damn has broke
My soul is spilling all over your hands
Take a look in my eyes Lover, there's something about your pushing me
Pulling me
That's saying don't go away One, two, three, four I see your eyes
I'll never run away
I fell too deep in love
Got just five words to say
[Incomprehensible]
