Human Nature

I.Q.

Free as the wind, tall as the tree
Wide as your mind, deep as the sea
You crawled on my land
Now I grow in your handAlways like the first time
Unlike the others they're so-so, so called lovers
Theirs is the push that comes to shove
But not in our evolution, it's naturalFrom great to grand
True love is never really planned
And wipes the memory of those who came
Before our evolution, it's naturalAnd with you see me walk on air
I know that I can do it
When you're holding tightly to my sleeve
The one with my heart upon itHard as the mountain range
Wide as a harvest moon
The set gets rearranged
But there's still time to join our showEvery dog must have its day
And everyone's a winner
And every time the lights go down on us
I'm a beginnerHow Lady Luck has changed
So long, Salem
The set gets rearranged
But there's still time to join the show'Cause free as the wind
Tall as the tree
Wide as your mind
Deep as the seaAn interlude
With haunting melodies of nursery rhymes
Singing the changes,
Singing the changes, singingI hear talk of classroom drama
Maybe it's a kind of psychodrama
Children, the mirrors of our yesterdays
On the land out of the sea, blowing in the breezeMind over metaphor
Fall in love with innocence
Don't dally long with diligence
Stand up, choose me, don't refuse meThey pawned our world of peace
A flock of sheep to fleece
Our flood of love won't cease
No harm can come our wayAnd it's easy to see what sets us apart
From the creatures still on the ocean bed
Our evolution it's natural

It goes from great to grandFalls into place like something that we planned
When you curl your arms around my frame
Or curl your lips around my name
And do just what comes naturalThe first thing on your mind
Do just what comes natural
I prefer your kind of human natureHuman nature, human nature
Human nature, human nature
Human nature, human nature
Human nature, human natureHuman nature, human nature
Human nature, human nature
Human nature, human nature
Human nature, human natureFree as the wind
Tall as the tree
Wide as your mind
Deep as the sea
