Fallen Angel

Mercutio

Take what you want, but you better keep me satisfied
Think what you want sugar you don't got my hands tied
You play too much, you play too rough girl
And your face is giving you away
You're a fallen angel, yeah

Be what you are girl, but don't think that I'm gonna stay
I'm immune to your charms and I'm tired of your masquerade
You know exactly what you're doing
You think you're fooling me, you're not
You're a fallen angel, yeah

Sun at the shoreline, fish in the sea
Birds circling 'round me, but I'm flying free

Don't waste your time girl 'cause I don't have the energy
Your insecurity is showing
You're just a face without a name
You're a fallen angel, yeah
