Sally Is Gone

Shakra

Sally is gone
She packed her bags and hit the road
Just left a note
Saying "Baby, I know
I shouldn't leave this way but I
I gotta go"She left some pictures and took he camera and the van
And now I wonder if loving me was just a part Of her nasty little planShe came like rain right out of the blue and asked me to Light her fire
As hot as hell and ringing my bell
she knew I'd fall
For her callSally is gone
Guess I knew it all the time
Yet I was blind
Didn't wanna think twice
Head over heels into the pool
Oh, what a fool
