Rain

Leela James

I can't take this rain, no
When I'm bringing you joy
Won't you show me some love
Like you did before?I won't cry, I'm feeling kinda tired
I can't keep give 'em way
When you don't even tryHeavy [Incomprehensible]
I'm trynna share a little sunshine
But your clouds are still thereWhy you giving me this rain now
And I'm bringin' you joy
You should show me some love
Like you did beforeIt could be so simple, babe
It's like you're pushing me away
[Incomprehensible]
Never having anything good to sayThere's gotta be a better way
To get back that days
There's a bridge in the middle
You need to meet me half way
Instead of playing all these games nowWhen I'm bringing you joy
Won't just show me some love
Like you did before?And I think I won't, I think I won't cry
I'm feeling kinda tired
I can't keep give 'em way
When you don't even tryHeavy [Incomprehensible]
I'm trynna share a little sunshine
But your clouds are still thereWhy you're giving me rain
When I'm bringin' you joy
Won't you show me some love
Like you did beforeI can't take this rain
Please show me some loveOh, I can't take this rain
I need a, a little love
We used to be so good together, baby
And I can't take the rain no moreI mean some joy, sometimes
